Registration and Entry Fees: When a child is registered for entry to Bloxham School there is a £200 non-returnable Registration Fee to cover administration.

Deposit and Acceptance Fee for UK Students: The Acceptance Fee is payable upon acceptance of a place. For UK residents, an £1,000 Acceptance Fee is payable. In the event that this standard is not achieved, any Acceptance Fee will be refunded in full. As part of this £1,000, there is a £400 refundable deposit, which appears on the student's final bill once all fee payments and extras are completed and any school property, if appropriate, is returned.

Deposit and Acceptance Fee for Overseas Students: The Deposit and Acceptance Fee are payable upon acceptance of a place. For overseas pupils, a deposit of a term's fees is required (refundable when the child leaves Bloxham) plus a non-refundable Acceptance Fee of £600.

Examination Charges: Charges are levied for A Level, GCSE and other external examinations. The charges vary, with the cost added to the school bill.

Instrumental Tuition: Students in the Fifth Form and Upper Sixth will be delivered 23 lessons of either 30 or 60 minutes per academic year. Students in all other year groups will normally receive 27 lessons of 30 or 60 minutes. Lessons are charged at £25 or £50 per lesson for 30 and 60 minute lessons respectively. The commitment varies primarily due to the exam requirements in the Summer Term. The School will charge termly in advance on the basis that each child will have 10 lessons in the Michaelmas term, 9 lessons in the Lent term and then either 8 or 4 lessons in the Summer term depending on whether they have external exams or not. A term's notice in writing to the Director of Music is required for the termination of lessons. A term's fees in lieu of notice will be payable where necessary notice is not given. Further details are available from the Music Department.
