Sixth Form Girls' Dress Code

Clothing guidelines to comply with Bloxham School Sixth Form uniform regulations

Each Sixth Form girl should own the following:

- Two tailored suits
- Blouses (at least six for Boarders)
- Two V-necked jumpers (or cardigans)
- Plain tights
- One pair of polishable shoes

Tailored suits:

Girls are required to wear formal business suits to ensure they always look as smart as possible and comply with the school rules.

Tailored suits can be either a skirt and jacket or a trouser suit. The set should be made of the same material, same colour and should be plain. If wearing a skirt, it should fall on the knee.

Suits can be either grey, black or navy blue.

A machine washable suit is hard-wearing and remains smart. The girls in the image bought their suits a year ago and they are still going strong!

Casual jackets and tight skirts are not acceptable.

Blouses:

Blouses should be plain and light coloured. Striped and checked patterns are allowed if subtle.

V-necked jumpers:

During the colder months girls should wear plain, V-necked jumpers over the top of their shirts. Jumpers should not be baggy, long or misshapen. Should girls prefer to wear cardigans, they should follow the same guidelines.

Shoes:

Girls' shoes should be either flat or low-heeled (maximum two-inch heel). Shoes should be black and polishable. Ballet pumps are not acceptable as they do not offer adequate support and tend to appear scruffy within a short period of time.

If you are unsure or would like advice, then please consult your Housemistress or the Head of Sixth Form. Girls who do not comply with the school's dress regulations will be asked to replace any inappropriate items.

Coats:

A dark navy blue/black overcoat may be worn outside only if a jacket/blazer is also worn. Two style options available from School Blazer suppliers.
